The mission of the American Business Women's Association is to bring together businesswomen of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support, and national recognition.

Julie Burch is the President of Julie Burch Speaks!, In her 20 plus years of speaking professionally, Julie has had the privilege of speaking to audiences in all 50 states, Washington DC, St. Thomas, St. Croix, Puerto Rico, Canada, England and Wales. She has designed programs for industry leaders such as Texas Tech University, Mercedes Benz, Fidelity Investments, Wingstop, BP Oil and Gas, Husky Oil, the Social Security Administration, Texas Women's University, The American Payroll Association, The United States Army and Air Force, Subway, Kentucky Fried Chicken, American Advertising Federation, and The Society for Human Resource Management. She was named the Society of Human Resource Management's 2017 Speaker Hall of Fame Inductee and was honored with a guest appearance on "Good Morning America" where she was interviewed by Diane Sawyer.

Julie is an active second generation member of ABWA and a charter member of the North Dallas Business Women Express Network where she served on the executive board for 3 years. Julie was honored as Woman of the Year in 2016 for her service to ABWA. She has served on numerous committees, as a campaign manager and co-chair for the Dallas Area Council of ABWA's Woman of the Year luncheon in 2015. She was elected as District II Vice President for 2016-2017 and currently serves as National Vice President, as well as a Stephen Bufton Memorial Educational Fund Trustee.

She is the coauthor of two books including a motivational book for women titled "The Princess Principle: Women Helping Women Discover Their Royal Spirit" and "Success Simplified: Simple Solutions Measurable Results."
